HOW TO USE THIS CATALOG & GUIDE:

Listings:
- For each item on this list, the following information is provided:
  - Product name and photo(s)
  - Ordering information, including product name, part/model number, price, vendor, vendor contact information
  - Installation requirements and instructions
  - Information about when this product can be used or who it is designed to fit
  - Details and specifications for the product
  - Guidance and testing information, including whether guidance is usually needed or may be needed, whether the product is available for testing. User guide, sizing guides and product information and videos are included when available
  - Details about any product options, if any
- Most commonly ordered items are marked with a QuickFix logo. These items generally work well for most users and do not require any guidance
- Items not marked as Quick Fix are used less frequently and guidance may be needed
- This list should be used in combination with your Office Ergonomics Self-Evaluation report or an ergonomics evaluation report

Questions and More Information:
- If you have questions, unresolved issues, need a list of frequently-ordered standard products, or need to try products prior to purchase, contact your EHS Specialist
- Refer to the EH&S website for more information about standard products, guidelines and requirements, and for more information about the UCSF Ergonomics Program

Ordering
- Departments are responsible for ordering equipment and coordinating directly with the listed vendor for any returns, service or warranty issues.
- Pricing is subject to changes by the vendor. The department should obtain the most current pricing from the listed vendor. Current pricing is available on BearBuy and via quote.

Seating Options in this Catalog
- Specialized seating for office environments is included in this catalog. UCSF's contract furniture providers can assist you in ordering standard task seating for offices and other environments that meet UCSF criteria and have an ergonomics seal of approval.